1st Community Federal Credit Union
www.1cfcu.org July 2010

1st Community Offers GREAT Options on Checking Accounts, but New Legislation is Changing Things by 1st Community President Bill Nikolauk

Listed below are some of the features of 1st Community Checking accounts that help save YOU money:

- 1) We offer a variety of checking accounts to fit your needs from FREE checking for our younger and senior members and members receiving direct deposit to FREE 1st Rate checking with amazing dividends and FREE ATMs available for members utilizing our electronic services.
- 2) We process your electronic deposits as soon as they are authorized for deposit.
- 3) We wait until after 6 pm each day to present paper check items for clearing against your account allowing you the entire day to make a deposit. However, electronic items must be allowed to clear as they are presented.
- 4) We also clear paper checks from the smallest amount to the largest amount allowing the most items to clear your account without any additional fees.
- 5) FREE Overdraft Protection transfers from savings, checking, clubs (other than Christmas clubs), and pre-approved 1st Cash lines of credit that you have provided authorization for are done automatically.
Our FREE Overdraft Protection options on our Checking accounts are designed with your protection and service in mind. The majority of members do not overdraw their accounts, but since life does not always go according to plan, overdrafts do occur. Without Overdraft Protection your transactions will either be declined causing you embarrassment or returned which could cost you a fee from the Credit Union and additional fees from the merchant the item is returned to.
- 6) Finally Courtesy Pay, which is an additional "safety net," allows most members to actually overdraw their checking account up to a maximum of $500 with fees, but saving you the additional fees and embarrassment at the merchant if the item is declined or returned when other Overdraft Options are not available. This option is currently available on your checking account if on your statement the name of your checking account is followed by "w/CP." Ex. "1ST RATE CHECKING W/CP." (Please see our Rates & Fees for fee amounts or contact the Credit Union for additional Courtesy Pay details)
- 7) There is an additional window of opportunity if an item is considered NSF in the nightly run. We actually do a repost in the morning after 8 am of all NSF items and their fees. If a deposit is made before 8 am the item will be paid, but there is still a $25 repost fee assessed. This still saves you the NSF fee from the merchant and the embarrassment of an NSF item. (cont. in next column...)

In addition to Overdraft Protection and Courtesy Pay there are 3 FREE valuable tools that not only can prevent you from having to pay ANY type of fee, but they can also provide you with peace of mind and can help prevent fraud, or at least help you detect fraud early, so you can take immediate action:

- 1) Keep a register of all your transactions - checks, ATM/debit card, pre-authorized, electronic, Bill Pay, or any other transactions affecting your checking account
 - 2) Utilize 1st Community's FREE "CU Easy" Internet Banking program to monitor your accounts 24/7
 - 3) Have FREE access to view your statements electronically through "CU Easy" on the first day of the month
- The three options above are absolutely FREE and they provide you with up to the moment information. In this time of electronic technology transactions are clearing your account faster, and your up to the moment knowledge is your best defense against problems and/or unnecessary fees.

URGENT!!!

Now that you know how Overdraft Protection and Courtesy Pay work, the Federal Reserve Bank has made amendments to Reg. E (Electronic Fund Transfers Act) that require you to understand and require your signature to maintain your same options - see page 2 to make your choice

Loan Change in Terms Notice - July 1, 2010

This notice of change in terms is required by Regulation Z.

1st Community will be changing loan documentation from Open End Credit Plans to Closed End Contracts for loan types other than the 1st Cash Line of Credit Loan. The 1st Cash Line of Credit Loan will remain as an Open End Credit Plan which will allow for periodic advances without requiring an application or credit check for each advance.

For anyone who has signed an Open End Credit Plan, no further advances will be made on this plan as of July 1, 2010. You will not see any difference in the way 1st Community FCU processes applications for your loan requests.

We will continue with the same policies and loan programs you are accustomed to receiving. There will be no change in loan rates (Annual Percentage Rates - APRs) because of this change.

Courtesy Pay Opt-In Form for ATM and One-Time Debit Card Transactions ONLY - effec. July 1, 2010

An Overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money available in your account (savings or checking) to cover a transaction, but we may pay it anyway.

We currently cover your overdrafts on your Checking account in two different ways and you choose the order in which they occur. There is no Overdraft Protection on Savings accounts.

1) 1st Community offers FREE standard Overdraft Protection available to all checking accounts upon your request:

a) we can transfer any available funds from any savings, checking, and/or club account you have access to if you give us prior authorization; and/or

b) we can advance on any pre-approved 1st Cash Line of Credit you have access to (as long as no loans are delinquent on that member #) AND/OR

2) 1st Community has also made an additional safety net called Courtesy Pay (previously called Overdraft Privilege) available to the majority of our members. Courtesy Pay allows us to authorize and clear transactions on your checking account up to a $500 negative balance with a $25 fee per item. This option is currently on your checking account if on your account or statement the name of your checking account is followed by "w/CP." Ex. "1ST RATE CHECKING W/CP."

Federal lawmakers created new rules governing only certain transactions using Courtesy Pay (previously called Overdraft Privilege) programs that go into effect on:
July 1, 2010, for New Members
August 15, 2010, for Current Members

What does this mean to you?

1) the Courtesy Pay program itself will still be provided to members under the same criteria as before, but the types of transactions Courtesy Pay can be used for on your checking account have changed:

a) Courtesy Pay will still operate the same for written checks, ACH items, or recurring debit transactions, such as regularly scheduled bill payments. They can still be authorized and paid with a fee if necessary;

the CHANGE IS

b) you can no longer take advantage of Courtesy Pay for ATM or one-time debit card transactions (like gas, restaurants, retail purchases, etc) without providing us your NEW "opt-in" approval

How can you provide this approval?

- 1) you can "opt-in" by completing and signing the authorization to the right and mailing it or faxing it as indicated; or
- 2) you can call the Credit Union at 325/653-1465 or 800/749-1465 and "opt-in" verbally; or
- 3) you can go online to www.1cfcu.org - print this same form, sign it and mail it or fax it as indicated.

What happens if I don't do anything?

- 1) Courtesy Pay will still operate the same for written checks, ACH items, or recurring debit transactions, such as regularly scheduled bill payments. They can still be authorized and paid with a fee if necessary;
- 2) However, if you do not opt-in Courtesy Pay will not be available to cover ATM or one-time debit card transactions and they will not be authorized if funds are not available.

OPT IN FORM

effective July 1, 2010 for new members & August 15, 2010 for members with accounts

Please indicate your preference by marking only one choice below. This decision will go into effect when the Credit Union receives this notice and has a reasonable opportunity to change my account on the system.

() I DO NOT WANT 1st Community Federal Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts using Courtesy Pay or any other option that requires a fee on my ATM and one-time debit card transactions. Applies to both Savings & Checking.
